Get Out And Play

Toddlers by nature are on the go! Make the most of their desire to move by taking them outside as much as possible this month before it gets too hot. Take along soft balls to roll and kick back and forth for added fun.

You can use this activity as a spiritual teaching time as well. As your child is listening, say “Thank you God for Joey’s feet to kick the ball! God helps our bodies grow strong while we exercise.”

Family Activity: Random Acts of Forgiveness

Intentionally look for big and small opportunities to forgive others this month. It might be a thoughtless driver when you are in the car, an impatient boss, a friend having a bad day or a sibling who is especially irritable

Around the dinner table or in the car share about your opportunities to forgive that person. Praise each other for sharing Christ in your forgiveness and showing kindness to others.
